

CUPRESSUS macrocarpa 'LUTEA'

Monterey cypress 'Lutea'

- | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Maintenance advice: Formative pruning, on shoots if necessary. |  Exposure: Sun - Half shade |
|  Botanical/Horticultural origin: Horticultural origin : breeder Dickson, Chester (GB) 1890 |  Evergreen/Deciduous: Evergreen |
|  Use group: Conifers |  Shape: shelved |
|  Height at 10 years: 10 m |  Colour of leaves: Yellow, gold |
|  Width at 10 years: 4 m |  Colour of flowers: Absent |
|  Growth: Fast |  Soil type: Cool to dry |
|  Fragrance: No |  Uses: Free standing specimen, Hedge, Street tree |

Calendar : J F M A M J J A S O N D