

AZALEA japonica 'ORANGE BEAUTY'

rhododendron 'Orange Beauty'

Evergreen hybrid azalea, dark green leaves, large salmon coloured flowers.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Maintenance advice: After flowering, and only if necessary, lightly trim to even out vegetation. Azaleas appreciate a cool soil : keep the soil moist, watering regularly, in summer. In August-September, water less, to get a better flowering the following spring. |  Exposure: Half shade |
|  Botanical/Horticultural origin: Horticultural origin : breeder C.B. Van Nes (NL) 1920 |  Evergreen/Deciduous: Evergreen |
|  Use group: Heathland plants |  Shape: rounded, ball, globe |
|  Height at 10 years: 1 m |  Colour of leaves: Green |
|  Width at 10 years: 1 m |  Colour of flowers: Salmon orange |
|  Growth: Slow |  Soil type: Cool |
|  Fragrance: No |  Uses: Border, Tub/container, Free standing specimen |

Calendar : J F M A M J J A S O N D

